Letter no. 169/Spl. dated 1st June 1935 from the Comptroller, requesting that the starting pay for B.S. Raghavendra, Deputy, may be fixed at Rs. 600/-.

Subs

A Mr B.S. Raghavendra Rao, was appointed as Deputy Comptroller in fort. Notification No. 796/CB. 37-34-2 dated 24th October 1934 & he was permitted to draw the revised scale of pay of Rs 500-50/- 75/- sanctioned for the post.

Now the Comptroller states that Mr Raghavendra Rao, is in receipt of a pay of Rs 500/- p.m. in the revised grade & would get Rs 500/- sometime later and requests that his starting pay may be fixed at Rs 600/- as he has drawn emoluments Rs 550/- and above for over two years as Asst. Comptroller.

B The Comptroller forwarded a similar representation^x requesting that he may be given a starting pay of Rs 600/- for Mr B.S. Raghavendra Rao in Oct. 1934. On the grounds that he lost a portion of his emoluments that he was drawing 1929 & that some of his colleagues were getting Rs 600/- then. But his representation was not viewed with favour. & as he was, however, permitted to count the period he already^{had} put in^{as Rs 500/- p.m.} as Senior Asst. Comptroller towards increment in the new grade of the Deputy Comptroller (vide Fin. Secy's note dated 23.10.34 & Member's mandate of 29.10.34 in C.B. File No. 37-34 (1-4 put up).)

pay in the revised scales sanctioned. In this connection it may be pointed out that ^{both} Messrs Balakrishna Gundahar and K. Srinivasa Chari, Surgeons, were given a pay of Rs 600/- as against Rs 550/- fixed by the Comptroller in the new scale, in consideration of the fact that both these officers were in receipt of Rs 575/- p.m. at the time of the revision of the scales of pay of the Medical Department, that both of them lost the duty allowance they were in receipt of, on account of their transfer to new charges, and that both of them were on the verge of retirement and had to wait ^{along period for} for promotion in the past. Again Mr J. Noronha, Surgeon, was permitted to draw Rs 600/- in lieu of Rs 750/- fixed by the Comptroller in view of the fact that he was an officer of long service and that reduction in pay affected not only his present pay but also his pension and that he was in the enjoyment of the old scale of pay for fairly long period.

Finally Mr J. Appaji Iyengar, Senior Assistant Surgeon was permitted to draw Rs 600/- instead of Rs 575/- fixed by the Comptroller, as he was drawing Rs 600/- on 6th March 1934 as P.P. or Assistant Surgeon. Besides all these cases have been ordered to be treated as special.

It is a point for consideration whether Mr B.S. Raghavendrarao's case is ~~an~~ analogous to that of the ^{mentioned} above officers.

The proposal of the Comptroller to give Mr B.S. Raghavendrarao a starting pay of Rs 600/- is for orders.

Mr. B. S. ~~Raghavendra~~ Raghavendra Rao was appointed Dy. Comptroller in the revised scale of Rs 500-9 and joined duty as such from 6.11.19. He had acted as Senior Asst. Comptroller for a few months previously and Govt. allowed him to count the period he acted as Sen. on Rs 500 towards increment in the new grade of Dy. Comptroller so that in the ordinary course he may get Rs 550 in about a year hence (about June 1936). As a special case he has also been allowed to retain his lien in the Civil Service Grade.

At the time of his appointment as Dy. Comptroller Mr. Raghavendra Rao submitted a representation for being started on Rs 600 but this was not acceded to. Reference is invited in this connection to the Fin. Secretary's minute d. 29.10.34 and the Govt. member's minute d. 29.10.34. The Fin. Secy. states that the grant of a higher starting salary was financially not acceptable, but that after the officer works as Dy. Comptroller for some time, the question of giving him an advance increment in recognition of good work might be considered.

In the reference now received from the Comptroller, a starting pay of Rs 600 has been recommended for the officer on the ground that as Assistant Comptroller a few years back he drew emoluments of Rs 550 (pay of Rs 450 + allowances) & above for over two years.

The Comptroller further states that "Govt. have considered it equitable in some other cases to take in view analogous factors for purposes of fixing initial pay in the revised grades". A few cases of grant of higher pay than that strictly admissible under the general rules, are mentioned in the office notes above, but ~~they do not seem to be exactly analogous~~ they do not seem to be exactly analogous to the case now under consideration.

If approved, the Fin. Secy. may be consulted regarding the grant of the request (in the light of any other analogous ~~cases~~ precedents etc.)

In the ordinary course he would get 550 Rs. in June 1936. In consideration of the fact that his emoluments (including allowances) were more than Rs 550 for over two years when he was in the Comptroller's office in the past, I would suggest that as a special case he may be allowed to draw immediately Rs 550 - i.e. one year in advance to remove his grievance that as Asst. Comptroller he is getting less than what he was getting as Assistant Comptroller.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the representation of Mr. B. S. Raghavendra Rao, Deputy Comptroller to Government, for enhancement of emoluments.

The substantive rank of Mr. B. S. Raghavendra Rao in the general line is that of an Assistant Commissioner. He reached the maximum pay of that post, viz., Rs 450 on 1st January 1929 and was recently promoted to act as Senior Assistant Commissioner. In Government Notification No. 796/C.B.37-34-2 dated 24th October 1934 he was appointed Deputy Comptroller on a pay of Rs 500-50/2-750, and as a special case he was allowed to retain his lien in the Civil Service cadre. Prior to his appointment as Deputy Comptroller, he had acted as Senior Assistant Commissioner on Rs 500/- per mensem for a few months and he has been permitted to count the service so put in towards increment in the new grade of Deputy Comptroller. He is occupying the post of Deputy Comptroller from 6th November 1934 and in the ordinary course, he would be eligible to draw Rs 550/- in the grade 500-50/2-750 about a year hence. The Comptroller recommends that in view of the fact that Mr. B. S. Raghavendra Rao drew emoluments of Rs 550/- and above (inclusive of allowances) for over two years in the past as Assistant Comptroller, he might be started on a pay of Rs 600/- in the grade of Deputy Comptroller.

The Financial Secretary says that, as a special case, Mr. Raghavendra Rao may be allowed to draw Rs 550/- immediately (i.e., one year in advance of the date on which he would get it in the ordinary course) to remove his grievance that as Deputy Comptroller he is getting less than what he was getting as Assistant Comptroller.

The proposal of the Financial Secretary is agreed to by the Members of Council and myself and I recommend that it may be graciously approved.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Bangalore, dated.....11th June.....1935.

FROM

A. N. RAGHAVACHAR, Esq., M.A.,
Comptroller to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

To

S. Shamanna Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Financial Department, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that Mr. B.S. Raghavendra Rao,
Acting Senior Assistant Commissioner now working as Deputy Comptroller in my office is in receipt of a monthly pay of Rs 500/- at present in the grade 500-50/2-750 and he would have to work for some time longer if he is to get Rs 550/- the next higher stage.
But I wish to point out in this connection that this officer has drawn total emoluments in excess of Rs 500/- for over three years in my office when he was last working as Assistant Comptroller as

Rs 425 plus D.A. 75 from 1-1-1928 to 14-9-28	Asst. Comptroller	} noted in it equitable in ^{some} ~~several~~ other cases to take in view analogous factors for purposes of fixing initial pay in the Revised grades sanctioned, I request that his starting pay in the grade of the Deputy-Comptroller may be fixed at Rs 600/- as he has already drawn emoluments Rs 550/- and above for over two years as Assistant Comptroller. I need hardly add that the post of the Deputy Comptroller carries with it more responsibility than that of an

Assistant

Assistant Comptroller and I have found the work of Mr. Raghavendra Rao satisfactory during the period he has worked under me.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
